

A woman is standing on a set of wide, weathered stone steps. She is wearing a long, flowing pink dress with intricate white floral embroidery. The dress has a V-neckline and long sleeves. She is also wearing a matching pink shawl or dupatta. Her accessories include large sunglasses, a heavy necklace, large earrings, and a headband. She is looking off to the side. In the background, there is a building with arched windows and doorways, suggesting a historical or architectural setting. The overall tone is warm and elegant.
