A woman with long, wavy brown hair is the central figure, wearing a dark green, long-sleeved dress with intricate gold embroidery. The dress features a pattern of small gold flowers and dots, with a wider gold floral border near the hem. She is standing in a room with ornate, patterned wallpaper. To her left, a large, multi-tiered chandelier with lit candles is visible. To her right, a framed painting of a man in historical attire hangs on the wall. The overall lighting is warm and soft.
